from "clarinet part I heard" not from my falling - on my hip - on the sidewalk - the man before in the group on the doorsill - calling to me - going to ask for some money - when there's the rudderless boat in that the man - in the traffic - by trucks - on the bicycle - so going - more slowly - than them - there was no rudderless boat - then - but him doing that a man humiliating - in front of his friends - so that to be driven inward would be on his ground - they may think

going off - someone - of the butterfly - but who's drunk with the other person - while driving told - when the president's - making a war - obviously in a context that's abroad

that to be driven inward would be sentiment - of us - that's not a stylized relation to another person
