Hugo bowling balls with tandem girl down country road over hill crest is projected into unseen wrongway traffic two full football teams riding are polo ponies on a baseball diamond carrying A K Russian rifles and M-16s in the bowling alley Gogone and others in his regiment fire down the lane from a prone position knocking off the spare finally felling pinboy perched out of sight over the set up on a pinball machine Hug is wild while onlookers spread powders in neat lines on the glass until Gone can no longer see the game Ungaretti is plowing center field with a team of stone horses tilting the bally rig at Rockefeller Center many dogs yelp snarl in the rink where walking the chihuahua H shoes them off and guides the thing to sniff out spot to take his teeny crap Hunting Gogo pulls back bow to play it like a saw or bass music making large game running to stop stands still on mostly startling hunting meats eating hotdog at the Hope troupe show Gog opens a can of World War II standard oil and drinks it slow with relish and Hugo Over a football field giant flippers hang flipping the every move of the wings a hockey guy begins to kiss the goalie through the mask as he disrobes to go to goal it has become a glimmering girl in sheep's clothing pretending to be the vanguard and his gang
